GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS LAFFLER TO THE INTERAGENCY COORDINATING COUNCIL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Heather Lail Laffler of Clayton to the North Carolina Interagency Coordinating Council for Children from Birth to Five with Disabilities and Their Families.

Laffler is the Manager of the Fiscal and Statutory Policy Unit at the N.C. Division of Child Development. Laffler received her Bachelor's degree in public policy studies from Duke University and her Masters in public administration from N.C. State University.

The Interagency Coordinating Council assists the state in carrying out the requirements for participating in Federal Individuals with Disability Education Amendments of 1991. The council provides early intervention services to children from birth through age five with, or at risk for developing disabilities. The council has 30 members, all appointed by the governor.
